*PAT means the program uses the Parents as Teachers model and serves prenatal to Kindergarten entry.

*HIPPI means the program uses the Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters model and serves families with children ages three to five. This program follows the school system calendar.

*NFP means the program uses the Nurse Family Partnership model and serves first time mothers that enroll prior to 28 weeks gestation and serves the family until the child turns 2 years old.

The numbers next to PAT, NFP or HIPPI refer to the number of families the programs are contracted to serve with each model.
