Awards :Three award ceremonies were held after the coronavirus became widespread: the 10th Magritte Awards on February 1, the 45th César Awards on February 28, and the 43rd Japan Academy Film Prize on March 6. The Japanese Academy Prize ceremony went ahead on March 6. However, the ceremony was conducted without any guests or journalists.<sup>27</sup> The 14th Seiyu Awards cancelled its live ceremony scheduled for March 7 in Tokyo and instead broadcast the winners on Nippon Cultural Broadcastings internet radio program.<sup>28</sup> The 40th Golden Raspberry Awards were initially intended to take place as planned on March 14.<sup>29</sup> However, it was ultimately cancelled. The ceremony's winners were announced on their YouTube channel on March 16.<sup>30</sup>

The lack of theatrical releases from Hollywood studios resulted in an anime film—Demon Slayer: Mugen Train—becoming the first-ever non-Hollywood film to top the annual worldwide box office. The film benefited from Japan's relative control of the pandemic at the time of its release, the popularity of the franchise, and reduced competition from international films.<sup>120121</sup> With both Los Angeles and New York City having allowed cinemas to reopen by March 2021, it was expected that film distributors would be more confident in releasing higher-profile films.<sup>122123</sup> During that month, Disney announced that Black Widow would open in theaters on July 9, 2021 and would also be available on Disney+ the same day with Premier Access, following the same release strategy that was used for one of the company's other films, Raya and the Last Dragon.<sup>124</sup> Two more of Disney's films, Cruella and Jungle Cruise, were also given this hybrid release.<sup>124125</sup>

Two weeks later, movie theaters in Los Angeles began reopening with 25% capacity. On March 23, 2021, Regal Cinemas announced that they would reopen their cinemas beginning April 2, 2021.<sup>199</sup> On April 19, it was announced that capacity for New York cinemas would be raised to 33% on April 26.<sup>200</sup> The same day, California issued an addendum that orange-tier counties would be restricted to 50% with no hard cap on patrons, and that counties under the yellow Minimal tier would be allowed to operate cinemas and other selected venues at up to 75% capacity if all attendees present proof of full vaccination or a recent negative COVID-19 test. Guidance was also issued for seating sections with less physical distancing for those who are fully vaccinated.<sup>201</sup> After filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in October 2020 and March 2021, respectively,<sup>202</sup><sup>203</sup> Studio movie Grill and Alamo Drafthouse Cinema respectively emerged from Chapter 11 in late-April 2021 and early-June 2021 with new funding, and some underperforming locations closed along with plans for new theaters being built.<sup>204</sup><sup>205</sup> On April 21, 2021, The Decurion Corporation, parent company of Arclight Cinemas, the Cinerama Dome, and Pacific Theaters, announced they would be shutting down all of its locations, due to the financial impact of the pandemic.<sup>206</sup><sup>207</sup> Two months later, Pacific Theaters filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy.<sup>208</sup>
