Widescreen refers to a larger width to height in the frame, compared to earlier historic aspect ratios.<sup>9</sup> A feature-length film, or feature film, is of a conventional full length, usually 60 minutes or more, and can commercially stand by itself without other films in a ticketed screening.<sup>10</sup> A short is a film that is not as long as a feature-length film, often screened with other shorts, or preceding a feature-length film. An independent is a film made outside the conventional film industry.

The 2020 Cannes Film Festival sent out invitations on March 6, despite France implementing limits on public gatherings beyond its scheduled dates the Cannes Television Festivals

Canneseries and MIPTV chose not to run, however, with Canneseries rescheduling for October and MIPTV canceling its event.<sup>764</sup> On March 19, the Festival de Cannes announced that it cannot be held on the scheduled dates, from May 12-23. Several options are considered in order to preserve its running, the main one being a simple postponement, in Cannes, until the end of June-beginning of July 2020.<sup>65</sup> Cannes main venue has been converted into a temporary homeless shelter.<sup>66</sup> Some festivals, including Tribeca, SXSW, ReelAbilities, TCM Classic Film Festival, and the Greenwich International Film Festival have created new online programming in lieu of having an in-person festival.<sup>67</sup> The 2020 Toronto International Film Festival is also planned to proceed at least partially online<sup>68</sup> on July 30, TIFF programmers announced a much smaller than normal lineup of feature films that will be screened at drive-in theatre venues and online.<sup>69</sup>

At the start of March, the James Bond film No Time to Die, which was scheduled to premiere in March 2020 and to wide release in April 2020, was postponed to November and then subsequently to April 2021.<sup>84</sup> No Time to Die was the first film to change its planned release outside of China because of the early outbreak of COVID-19, and has opened discussions of dramatic implications on the film economy: many other productions had avoided scheduling releases at the same time as the 25th Bond film, and its new November date is in the busy holiday release period, leading to low box office intake in March/April and uncertain intake in November.<sup>21</sup> However, the postponement could reportedly generate more publicity for the film, and is also taking the familiar November release slot of the past two Bond films.<sup>85</sup>

It has also been suggested that other high-profile films will follow and postpone releases, creating a similar effect.<sup>2184</sup> Several other films soon followed in postponing their releases worldwide: the heavily promoted Polish slasher film W lesie dziś nie zaśnie nikt Nobody Sleeps in the Woods Tonight was postponed from March 13 to some point in the future when the situation had settled,<sup>86</sup> and the political documentary Slay the Dragon had its theatrical release moved from March 13 to April 3.<sup>31</sup>
