Box office : In early March 2020, it was predicted that the global box office could lose US billion as a result of the pandemic. Countries that are pandemic hot-spots have closed or restricted cinemas and movie theaters, negatively affecting film revenue. Attendance has also been lower in other regions. Following the pandemic in mainland China, 70,000 cinemas were closed in January 2020. In the first two months of 2020, Chinas box office was down to US.9 million, compared to US.148 billion in the first two months of 2020.2 Later, as a result of the pandemic in Italy, on March 8, 2020, the Italian government ordered all cinemas to be closed, for up to a month. Before the closure, box office tracking estimated a 94% drop for the weekend of March 6-8 compared to the same period the previous year.<sup>8</sup> Because of the growing pandemic in France, cinemas are operating at half capacity, leaving strategic seats unavailable to reduce proximity in the screens,<sup>9</sup> a move followed days later by the Irish and Northern Irish cinema chain Omniplex Cinemas.<sup>10</sup> On March 12, Qatar also closed all cinemas,<sup>11</sup> as did the US on March 17, Malaysia and Thailand on March 18,<sup>12</sup> the UK on March 20, Australia and New Zealand on March 22, and Singapore on March 27.<sup>13</sup> After a state of emergency was declared in Tokyo and six other prefectures in Japan on April 7,<sup>14</sup> over 220 cinemas were closed.<sup>15</sup><sup>16</sup><sup>17</sup>

At the start of March, the James Bond film No Time to Die, which was scheduled to premiere in March 2020 and to wide release in April 2020, was postponed to November and then subsequently to April 2021.<sup>84</sup> No Time to Die was the first film to change its planned release outside of China because of the early outbreak of COVID-19, and has opened discussions of dramatic implications on the film economy: many other productions had avoided scheduling releases at the same time as the 25th Bond film, and its new November date is in the busy holiday release period, leading to low box office intake in March/April and uncertain intake in November.<sup>21</sup> However, the postponement could reportedly generate more publicity for the film, and is also taking the familiar November release slot of the past two Bond films.<sup>85</sup> It has also been suggested that other high-profile films will follow and postpone releases, creating a similar effect.<sup>21</sup><sup>84</sup> Several other films soon followed in postponing their releases worldwide: the heavily promoted Polish slasher film W lesie dziś nie zaśnie nikt Nobody Sleeps in the Woods Tonight was postponed from March 13 to some point in the future when the situation had settled,<sup>86</sup> and the political documentary Slay the Dragon had its theatrical release moved from March 13 to April 3.<sup>31</sup>

On March 5, 2021, cinemas in New York City were given authorization to reopen, subject to the same 50-patron limit as the remainder of the state.<sup>197</sup> On March 11, after Los Angeles County moved from purple to red on the Blueprint for a Safer Economy, the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health LACDPH gave authorization for cinemas to resume operations in the area at 25% capacity.<sup>198</sup> 42 of the approximately 107 cinemas as of 2019 in the LA area had resumed operations by March 26, with some chains and independent cinemas expecting to reopen over the next few weeks for the opening of Godzilla vs. Kong.<sup>122123</sup>
